The River Conway and Bettws-y-Coed.
The River Conway is a pretty and picturesque river, from where a fine view of Conway Castle and the surrounding district can be obtained. Bettws-y-Coed is a charming hamlet near the junction of the Llugwy and Conway, and is surrounded by the most beautiful sylvan scenery. It is a favourite resort of anglers and artists having four streams and numerous lakes within easy distance, and its title of the "Paradise of Wales" is well deserved.
